

Ride Connection Respects Civil Rights

Ride Connection operates its programs without regard to race, age, religion, color, sex, national origin, physical or mental disability, marital or veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or any other characteristic protected by law in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, ORS Chapter 659A or other applicable law.

Ride Connection Title VI Policy Statement

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 states:

“No person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.”

Ride Connection is committed to complying with the requirements of Title VI in all of its federally funded programs and activities.

Making a Title VI Complaint

Any person who believes he or she has been aggrieved by an unlawful discriminatory practice under Title VI may file a complaint with Ride Connection. Any such complaint must be in writing and filed with Ride Connection within 180 days following the date of the alleged discriminatory occurrence. For information on how to file a complaint, contact Ride Connection by any of the methods provided below.
